SAIGON (AP) — Waves of high-altitude B52 bombers made one of their rare invasions of North Vietnam today for a saturation raid on gun emplacements and dug-in bunkers of the North Vietnamese 341st Division just above the 17th Parallel frontier.

The U.S. Command said the big bombers came in waves two hours apart and saturated an area almost two miles long and two miles wide with a lethal rain of bombs.

The number of bombers was not disclosed but the size of the target area indicated a far greater than average strike. The big bombers probably unloaded hundreds of thousands of pounds of bombs on the North Vietnamese emplacements.

The target area was just north of the demilitarized zone dividing Vietnam and about 14 miles inland—the area where the 341st Division is posted and from which heavy Communist guns have for weeks fired deadly barrages on U.S. Marines dug in about seven miles to the south.

Although ground action was scattered and inconclusive, there were these other developments in the war:

1. The U.S. Command announced that the Forrestal, America's third-largest aircraft carrier, has joined the 7th Fleet operating against North Vietnam from the Tonkin Gulf. The Australian destroyer Hobart also rejoined the fleet bombarding North Vietnam.

2. Two American jets were downed over North Vietnam Tuesday. They brought announced U.S. combat plane losses over North Vietnam to 617. They were a Navy A4 Skyhawk jet and a two-place Air Force F4C Phantom. The three fighters are missing in action.

3. South Vietnamese headquarters said two more Communist mines ripped up the road and blew up a small concrete bridge on Highway 4, the main road from Saigon into the Mekong Delta and long regarded as one of the nation's safest roads. Guerrillas have set more than nine mines in the road in the past week and more have been discovered unexploded.

4. Viet Cong guerrillas masquerading as government troops struck a lethal blow close to Saigon for the second time in 24 hours. Wearing South Vietnamese army uniforms, the guerrillas seized a Red Cross ambulance and surprised a militia post and police station six miles northwest of the capital, killed 11 policemen and militiamen, and wounded seven others.

Health Threat

DETROIT (AP) — City health officials said rats fleeing riot-devastated areas of Detroit may pose a major health threat. Harry Boyler, a Health Department official, said extra stores of rat poison and equipment are being gathered.

Summer Madness Still Widespread

By The Associated Press

The nation's midsummer nightmare of street violence continued today with fresh outbreaks occurring as rapidly as other disturbances were put down. The presence of federal troops failed to prevent new rioting in Detroit.

Through the streets of New York's Spanish Harlem, priests and nuns led a candlelight procession singing the "Ave Maria" and for the first time in three nights the neighborhood was nearly calm.

There were at least eight persons shot and wounded in Saginaw, Mich., and another three in Grand Rapids. In the Southwest, Phoenix, Ariz., police confronted Negro youths amid intermittent rifle fire.

Looting in Chicago

Chicago's West Side was the scene of sporadic looting but police said they confined the outbreak to a five-block area. Along Cleveland's Hough Avenue, where rioting took five lives a year ago, a number of fire bombs were thrown.

In Cambridge, Md., a federal fugitive warrant was issued Tuesday for the arrest of H. Rap Brown, the militant head of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, charged with complicity in the riot in that city Monday night.

There were 700 National Guardsmen to enforce an uneasy calm at that city Tuesday night.

3 Shot in Saginaw

Relative peace also prevailed after nights of disturbances in Englewood, N.J. Pontiac, Mich., and Rochester, N.Y.

Rochester Police Chief William M. Lombard credited stepped-up anti-riot training for his men as a key factor in putting down the violence that took two lives there.

In Saginaw, Mich., police said at least eight persons were shot and wounded during a siege of sniper firing. Hundreds of Negroes roamed through the city, 100 miles northwest of Detroit, after an abortive sit-in.

Three Negroes were shot and wounded in Grand Rapids while trying to reason with an angry crowd. Police said they were hit by sniper fire. They were members of a volunteer group trying to convince troublemakers to stay home.

There were 42 major fires during the second day of violence in the western Michigan city.

Fires in Toledo

Waukegan, Ill., police were reinforced by 130 officers from neighboring cities Tuesday night to forestall further vandalism, fire bombings and rock throwing which occurred during the past two days.

There were firebombings in Toledo, Ohio, where National Guard troops were on a "stand-by" basis at the city armory. Negro youths went on a window-smashing spree in Mt. Vernon, N.Y.

Property damage around the nation neared the $300 million mark.

California Gov. Ronald Reagan, in a news conference at Sacramento, declared "there is a plan" behind the uprisings which he said are being carried out by "mad dogs no longer concerned with civil rights."

Black Power advocate Stokely Carmichael, in Havana for a conference, was quoted by the Cuban news agency Prensa Latina Tuesday as saying American Negroes are organizing urban guerrillas for "a fight to the death."

By 10:30 p.m. Tuesday nearly a truckload of supplies had been donated. The first call went out about 6 p.m.

12 Hours Adrift

ALPENA (AP) — Two men were rescued Tuesday after spending 12 hours drifting on Thunder Bay, clinging to a capsized sailboat. Charles White, Alpena, and Harry Hill, Lansing ran into a thunderstorm on Lake Huron Monday night and were capsized.

OTTAWA (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle plans to return to France from Montreal, cancelling the Ottawa portion of his scheduled visit, a government source said today.

OTTAWA (AP) — An uncertain reception awaited President Charles de Gaulle in Canada's capital today following a rebuke from Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson and mounting protests over his support for Quebec separatists.

De Gaulle was scheduled to arrive by train late today for a round of banquets and receptions concluding his controversial five-day tour that ends Thursday night when he flies home.

The 76-year-old French leader gave no sign he was concerned by the furor he caused by shouting the separatist rallying cry, "Long live Free Quebec!" to a wildly cheering French-Canadian crowd in Montreal Monday.

Adding new fuel to the dispute, De Gaulle declared at a dinner Tuesday night in Montreal he "will rejoice profoundly" if his visit has been "useful" to the French-speaking citizens of Quebec Province, where a militant minority demands secession of the province from

Guards Fight Snipers In Riot-Torn Detroit

Riot Cost Billion $

DETROIT (AP) — The cost of rioting in the three-county Detroit metropolitan area eventually could reach $1 billion.

That prediction was made Tuesday by Dwight Havens, president of the Greater Detroit Board of Commerce, who said, "We're using a ballpark figure on this."

"It's really such a guess estimate at this point I'm almost embarrassed to cite it," he said in a telephone interview, adding, "but we can see where the total dollar estimate might reach a billion dollars."

"Beyond this," he added, "you've got your costs that are directly involved in the looting itself. There's material that is either stolen or damaged beyond recall. There's obviously going to be a large loss of tax revenue. We are estimating that the total loss in retail sales alone may be $60 million."

Havens explained that the projection is based on the year's anticipated total volume proportioned down to three days, which assumes that there will be more pillaging. If there is more, which seems likely, the estimate will rise.

Payroll loss? "We can't even get a guess from the major employers at this time," Havens said. "They just sort of chuckle sadly."

"If this had happened at a different time, when the auto companies were operating at full steam, this could have been much worse than it is," he pointed out. He said giant General Motors is in the middle of its model changeover and almost no production is going on. Although absenteeism is high — production is more or less under way in the auto industry, General Motors is in the middle of its model changeover so little production would be going on even in normal circumstances. But three Chrysler plants which had been closed were reopened Tuesday, with absenteeism running about 50 per cent. The night shift was cut to four hours because of the 9 p.m. curfew, and the overnight shift was eliminated.

Congress Argues Blame For Riots

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leaders are haggling over the political blame for big-city rioting as Congress moved ponderously to set up the machinery to investigate violence in the streets.

While committees discussed hearings and action on anti-rioting and inquiry measures, Democrats and Republicans accused each other of trying to reap political advantage out of the bloody destruction in Detroit and other urban areas.

Controversy boiled up Tuesday over whether President Johnson acted quickly enough in sending federal troops into Detroit's stricken areas and whether Republicans were playing politics in accusing Johnson of failing to deal adequately with racial disorders.

Sen. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., told the Senate there had been an "unfortunate delay" between the time federal troops arrived in Michigan and when they were ordered into the streets. He said in that period additional lives were lost and property destroyed.

Change "Politics"

House Democratic Leader Carl Albert of Oklahoma accused Republican leaders of "playing politics" in issuing a Republican Policy Coordinating Committee statement saying Johnson had failed to cope with the problem of civil disorders.

Amid an eruption of charges and countercharges, Johnson met with Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, discussed "every angle" of multiple-city rioting and gave no indication of whether he favors a congressional investigation.

This was Dirksen's report as he offered a resolution to set up a Senate-House committee of 10 to inquire into the root causes of civil disorder and to recommend congressional action to curb further outbreaks.

Ford Replies

House Republican leader Gerald R. Ford replied to Johnson's address to the nation at midnight Monday indicated "the President himself is getting politics involved in this tragic situation."

Johnson emphasized in his telecast that Michigan Gov.

George Romney, a potential candidate for the 1968 GOP presidential nomination, had asked for federal troops.

California Gov. Ronald Reagan, another potential GOP candidate, said Johnson's speech "sounded like the kickoff to the 1968 campaign." At a Sacramento news conference Reagan said "there is a plan" behind the rioting which he said is carried out by "mad dogs."

Decries Fault Finding

Asked who is behind such a plan, Reagan said: "You'd have me guessing."

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said this is no time to "find fault with the other party nor is it the time for any of us, regardless of party, to find fault with the President."

Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., predicted the Senate Judiciary Committee would decide today on procedure to be

Reuther Urges Early Retiring

ANN ARBOR (AP) — UAW President Walter P. Reuther today urged Congressional approval of lowered retirement age with no loss in benefits.

Reuther made his recommendations in remarks prepared for a U.S. Senate subcommittee hearing on retirement in Ann Arbor.

The union president urged lowering retirement ages from 65 to 62 for men and to 60 for women.

He said the UAW's policy on early retirement has created many new job opportunities for younger men with growing families while allowing many older employees to retire with some measure of security.

Reuther also called for increases in minimum monthly Social Security benefits rising with increases in the nation's productivity and said those on Social Security should receive a cost-of-living allowance.

Death Toll 33 After 3d Night Of Terrorism

DETROIT (AP) — National Guardsmen and police battled furiously with elusive snipers on Detroit's war-torn West Side today as this riot-ravaged city ended its third night of terror with mounting dead.

Dwindling rifle fire replaced the clatter of automatic weapons as calm returned with dawn.

The death toll stood at 33 with 10 new deaths, two short of making this the costliest riot in terms of human life in recent U.S. history. Thirty-four died at Watts in 1965.

It already was the costliest in all other respects.

1000 Injured

Injuries climbed to more than 1,000 with 280 hospitalized. City officials said property damage and business losses in the two days and three nights of Negro rebellion could reach $1 billion.

New fires set by arsonists and looters boosted the total to 1,145. Arrests mounted to 2,623 with bail as high as $200,000 set for suspected snipers.

As bullets whined in the streets, the city faced another problem, potentially as costly as the near anarchy of the present — hundreds, possibly thousands, burned from homes or jobs had become refugees.

Food Lines

Food lines formed in one area.

Flash fires of racial upheaval leaped across the state with curfews and emergency conditions slapped on Grand Rapids, Saginaw, Flint and Pontiac where two were dead.

In Detroit, hours-long battles deafened a five-square-mile section where a routine police raid on a Negro night spot sparked the original rioting Sunday.

Mechinegun bullets splattered through apartment house windows six blocks west of the John Lodge Expressway which bisects the city from north to south.

Four adults and a baby were wounded.

National Guardsmen manned the gun, spraying the building in a hunt for snipers, W.M. Morris, special officer with the Detroit Police Department, told The Associated Press.

Girl Found Dead

In the same area a 4-year-old girl was found dead of gunshot wounds on the living room floor of her family's apartment. It could not be confirmed immediately whether it was the same building.

Firefighters crept within two blocks of the gold-domed Fisher Building, a 20-story landmark that can be seen from downtown, three miles south. It houses one of the city's best restaurants.

DeGaulle 'Insult' Angers Canadians

BULLETIN

OTTAWA (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle plans to return to France from Montreal, cancelling the Ottawa portion of his scheduled visit, a government source said today.

OTTAWA (AP) — An uncertain reception awaited President Charles de Gaulle in Canada's capital today following a rebuke from Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson and mounting protests over his support for Quebec separatists.

De Gaulle was scheduled to arrive by train late today for a round of banquets and receptions concluding his controversial five-day tour that ends Thursday night when he flies home.

The 76-year-old French leader gave no sign he was concerned by the furor he caused by shouting the separatist rallying cry, "Long live Free Quebec!" to a wildly cheering French-Canadian crowd in Montreal Monday.

Adding new fuel to the dispute, De Gaulle declared at a dinner Tuesday night in Montreal he "will rejoice profoundly" if his visit has been "useful" to the French-speaking citizens of Quebec Province, where a militant minority demands secession of the province from the English-speaking rest of Canada.

A few hours earlier Pearson accused De Gaulle of encouraging "the small minority of our population whose aim is to destroy Canada." After an emergency meeting with his Cabinet, the prime minister said these statements by the French president "are unacceptable to the Canadian people and its government."

Pearson tempered his rebuke by saying he was sure Canadians were pleased at the warm welcome De Gaulle had received in Quebec and that Canadians "attach the greatest importance to our friendship with the French people."

Pearson's statement failed to satisfy some aroused Canadians.

The opposition leader, Conservative John Diefenbaker, called it "a diplomatic conception of generalities which fail entirely to meet the situation."

He had urged a stern reprimand and said De Gaulle should be told to make no more public speeches in Canada.

Warren Almond, one of Pearson's Liberal party members of Parliament, said De Gaulle should be told to leave Canada at once.

Newspapers across Canada ran angry editorials labeling De Gaulle's remarks an insult, a deliberate affront, interference in Canadian affairs, inflammatory advice to young hotheads, encouragement of subversion, an attempt to divide the country and abuse of hospitality. Two French papers in Montreal defended the general.

Some Paris papers joined in the attacks. The independent, influential Le Monde asked: "How can one not be concerned at this brutal intervention in the internal affairs of a state?"

The leftist Combat demanded: "By what right has he become judge, arbiter and instigator of Quebec's destiny?"

Furniture Store Expands

Ivan Kobasic Furniture at 901 Ludington St. has acquired an additional display and warehouse building at 109 S. 9th St., it was announced today by Ivan Kobasic, proprietor.

The building is the former Carpenters Hall and the interior has been redecorated and renovated to provide the display and warehouse space that will help give better customer service, said Kobasic.

"Our goal of providing everything for the home is furthered by having this additional space, part of our continuing program of giving our customers the best possible service," Kobasic added.

Besides the main store, Kobasic a few years ago constructed a three-story addition at the rear, and now the display warehouse has been acquired.

The former Carpenters Hall was sold to Kobasic by the local Carpenters Union recently. The Carpenters are planning the construction of a new building, the location not yet determined.

The Carpenters Union occupied the building for about 20 years. Formerly the hall was a church—the second church built by the First Methodist Church in Escanaba and moved to S. 9th St. when the present church was built about 1907.

Saddle Club Show Planned

The Silver Spur Saddle club today announced events for its annual horse show, to be held on the south bluff of Gladstone on Sunday, July 30.

The show will begin at 10 o'clock with "Fitting and Showing at Halter." In this event the horses are shown without equipment except halter and lead rope. Points are awarded on the basis of conformation, action, obedience and good grooming of the horse and on proper handling and showmanship on the part of the owner.

Fitting and showing will be followed by "Western Pleasure Riding." The horses are ridden with western equipment at walk, trot and canter. Points are awarded for promptness in breaking into a gait called for by the judge. Steadiness in holding to the gait, proper change of lead in the canter and proper form on the part of the rider.

The afternoon will be taken up by three speed events: Pole Bending, Barrel Racing, and Monkey Tire Race.

In pole bending the horses are raced in a weaving pattern both ways through a series of five poles standing 21 ft. apart. Knocking over any of the poles disqualifies the horse and rider for that event.

In barrel racing the horses are run against time around each of three barrels arranged in a cloverleaf pattern. Knocking over a barrel is a disqualification.

For the Monkey Tire Race the rider alternately drops off and picks up a second rider who clings to a suspended tire while the first rider races around the ring.

In all these events the horses and riders have become so skillful that only a fraction of a second may separate the winner from second and third place riders.

For all speed events the riders are divided into juvenile, junior, senior and veteran classes.

A nominal fee will be charged. Lunch will be available on the grounds and there are bleachers for spectators.

NMU's TV Plan 'Exploratory'

Discussion of additional television service by Northern Michigan University for the Upper Peninsula is still in an exploratory stage, the university announced today.

"Release by a Green Bay television station, (WFRV) of what appeared to be completed plans was premature," said Dr. Edgar L. Harden, NMU president, "and much of the material as reported was out of context."

Northern Michigan University's board of control will study all facets of the television's services during the next few months and determine what if any change should be made, he said.

The Press reported on Tuesday NMU's opposition before the Federal Communications Commission to use of TV Channel 3 for a satellite station at Rumley because it desired Channel 3 for an NMU TV station.

Priests Senate Is Completed

The Most Rev. Bishop Thomas L. Noa has completed the roster of the Priests Senate of the Catholic Diocese of Marquette, adding three appointees to the seven elected clergymen.

At the first meeting Bishop Noa said "it is not a question of who is the supreme authority, but rather a participation in the work of Christ. We should try to work as a body, with one mind, so that the bishop, with the senate, will do the right thing."

Fr. John Hughes of Kingsford, senior member of the Priests Senate, was named chairman, with Fr. William Richards of Ewen as vice-chairman, and Fr. Leno Zadra of Escanaba as secretary.

Terms of office will be set up by a constitution, which will be the major point on the agenda for the Aug. 16 meeting, to be hosted by Father Hughes of American Martyrs parish, Kingsford.

Appointees were Fr. Gerald Held of Calumet, a Franciscan, to represent the order priests serving within the diocese; Fr. Louis Brackett of Menominee, for the Menominee Deanery; and Fr. Matthew Nyman of Loretto Central High School, for the Sault Ste. Marie Deanery.

Mrs. Goodman Dies Suddenly

GLADSTONE — Violet May Goodman, 61, of 505 Minnesota Ave., Gladstone died suddenly early Tuesday morning at the family home.

She was born May 25, 1906 and had been a teacher in the Gladstone Public Schools. She had also taught remedial reading in the Gladstone schools. Mrs. Goodman was a member of the Memorial Methodist Church and the M. E. A.

Her husband preceded her in death Sept. 9, 1965.

She is survived by a son, Jeffrey John of Washington, D. C. and one grandchild, one sister, Mrs. Lorraine Murphy of Gladstone; two brothers, Floyd Struble of Brampton and Carlton of Masonville.

Friends may call at the Anderson-Johns Funeral Home in Gladstone from 4 to 9:30 p. m. Thursday. Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p. m. Friday at the funeral home chapel with Rev. Loren Anderson officiating in the absence of Rev. Clifford DeVor. Burial will be in Fernwood Cemetery.

Norway Accused Of Pollution; Hearing Is Set

LANSING (AP) — Officials of five communities charged with polluting local waters will be called before the State Water Resources Commission for a hearing Thursday and Friday at Lansing.

Hearings have been scheduled Thursday for Lake Odessa, Ionia County; Norway, Dickinson County; and Brooklyn, Jackson County; Warren, Macomb County; and Ashley, Gratiot County, will be heard on Friday.

Also to be considered are final orders against Reading, Hillsdale County; and Pontiac Township, Oakland County. Both have been charged with unlawful discharge of raw sewage.

The order against the last two communities will set specific deadlines for the construction of treatment facilities.

The principal cigar tobacco producing areas in the United States are Connecticut, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Florida, Georgia and Wisconsin.

Parks Service Opening Office At Munising

MUNISING — A land acquisition office for the Pictured Rocks National Lakeshore Park is opening here this week. Allen T. Edmunds, East Lansing, assistant regional director for the National Park Service, said the Alger County office will be headed by Brooks Hamilton, land acquisition officer.

"We have some money to buy land, and we intend to get started this summer," Edmunds added. "So far as we know, the $800,000 earmarked for Pictured Rocks park this year has gone through Congress, and we have been assured the money will be available soon."

A survey of the park by air and land has been made, and purchasing of private land will begin soon. The Munising office will not deal with transfer of publicly-owned lands.

First purchases will be made at the western end of the park near Munising. Shortly after, the Park Service will buy land near Grand Marais in the eastern area, and development of facilities will begin in both places.

"One of the first things we want to do is get the highway built between Grand Marais and Munising to tie the park together," Edmunds said. The 32-mile scenic route would be open to traffic the year around.

Earlier this month, 5,000 acres of state-owned land, mostly in the Grand Sable Dunes area, were transferred to the National Park Service.

Waukesha Man Gets 27 Years For Knifing

WAUKESHA — Robert D. Kramer, 27, who was convicted recently of abducting and knifing a young Sussex woman last summer, was sentenced to 27 years in the state prison at Wausau.

Kramer also will be arraigned Sept. 5, for the knife slayings of Sharon Malone and Cheryl Packard.

When asked by Judge William G. Callow if he had anything to say before sentence was pronounced, Kramer answered "Yes, I'm innocent and someday this nut will strike again."

Two thousand years ago, Rome had a highly organized fire department, and one of the types of officials in it was the "questionarius," who had to investigate the cause of all fires.

About Individuals

A Chicago Negro musician had some things to say about the Upper Peninsula recently. He stopped at a traffic light in Escanaba and a young punk in a car shouted at him: "Go back to Africa, where you belong, you black b—."

The Negro is a college alumnus. He was wounded seriously fighting for his country in Korea. He has a love for his troubled country and it's his country.

The shouted insult at the stop light concerned him specially because he had invited his 14-year-old son up from Chicago to spend a few days with him in the Upper Peninsula.

"My kid was in the riots in Chicago last summer," he said. "Maybe the kid who shouted at me at the stop light wanted to start a riot; maybe he was scared; maybe he wanted to be a hard man. I'll bet he was never in a riot. It's like being in a battle. You never want to be in another one."

"If my kid came up here and that happened to him he'd think I was a square because I've been telling him that people aren't like that. I've been telling him that you've got to judge people as individuals. I'm worried about my boy. I don't want him to be one of the sick ones."

We have very few Negroes in the Upper Peninsula. We have only about 3,000 non-whites and more than 2,000 of them are Indians. Our Negroes are mostly at our two air bases, Air Force members. This shortens our knowledge of Negroes, but the process doesn't leave us with a tolerance because of our unfamiliarity, as witness the "Go back to Africa" insult and other encounters.

On this point the Negro said "You know, we Negroes are the only Americans who didn't ask to come here."

He said that the big city rioting is fomented. That skilled agitators work over the neighborhoods and stir up the Negroes' anger against their squalid living conditions, job problems and denial of civil rights.

"We have enough laws on civil rights," he said "there'll never be a law that can force any man to accept another man as a man. This is the problem. The public accepts a Negro athlete like some kind of special baboon, or a Negro entertainer, but not as men."

His solution is a simple one. "I tell young Negroes to join the Job Corps and learn a skill. Segregation is a small price to pay for learning a skill that can make you a useful man, so you can earn your own living. I became a professional musician because there are more opportunities for employment for a colored person in this field."

"I can do a job. I can earn my own way. I can be a man."

There may not be a much better sermon preached in the U. P. on Sunday than this Negro (age 37) spoke in his plea for an American society in which people can live together without hatred and with more sharing of opportunity. Treatment of Negroes, he suggests, is not so much an indication of what people think about Negroes as what they think.

TICKET

During the first week of July, while visiting in Escanaba, and parked on the side street by the Bishop Noe Home, a traffic violation ticket was placed on the car. As a matter of fact, we were just returning to our car, when the meter maid was just placing the ticket on the windshield.

Now, I ask you what kind of courtesy is this for an out-of-state fourwheeler to receive? We come to Escanaba very often and spend plenty of money there, so please keep in mind that it is not the 50¢ piece that is the issue here, rather a great matter of principle.

I know of no other city that's so lacking in courtesy. I was so shocked by this petty thing that I went to your local Chamber of Commerce manager and informed him that all the good work they have done to promote the Upper Michigan area was being undermined by a stupid, greedy group.

Now, if I were a native of Michigan, I would expect to receive a ticket, even if it was only one minute overdue.

I hope that you will print this in the newspaper. Perhaps it will wake up some of the so-called fathers of the city, and they can do something about it before it is too late, and Escanaba will be wondering where all the tourists are.

HOME

I'm writing this in regards to the closing of the Delta Nursing Home. Maybe to you it doesn't come up to the standards that the State of Michigan requires but the County of Delta could, if they would, remedy this by allocating funds to bring the home up to the state standards.

I wish that each and every one of you that would have a say so as to whether or not they should allocate funds to bring the Delta Nursing Home up to the state standards would come out to the home and visit the patients that are still here. You can rest be assured it wouldn't take long to see how upset these people are, not knowing where or what is going to become of them.

These people have had to give up their homes once a ready and now they have to tear up roots and lose another home, for that is just what this place is to these patients — home!

I work with these people and, believe me, it is no fun to see them walk around with long faces full of worry and confusion, nor to hear them cry and to hear their prayers being said about keeping the nursing home open so they won't have to lose their home. Everyone seems to be concerned with our senior citizens, but I don't think this is fair to them, do you?

Some day we are all going to be senior citizens. Would you like this to happen to you? Many of the patients here will just give up if their second home is closed down underneath them.

I certainly hope everyone concerned will ponder over these thoughts for a while and reconsider their decision on closing down the Delta Nursing Home.

Elizabeth Norkoli Rock

PLEA

This letter from a senior resident of the Delta Nursing Home is to inform the public that each and every resident here strongly protests the decision of those in authority to close this well-run home by Oct. 1, seeing there are no available places to move the helpless bed patients.

We urge all of you who have the welfare of these people at heart to do all in your power to take the necessary steps to keep this "Home away from Home" running. Our superintendent, Mrs. D. Peterson, is a very fine and efficient lady, as are her nurses and helpers.

Thank you for anything you may be able to do.
Mrs. Fern Quist

BARBS

By WALTER C. PARKES
People without a pool in the back yard are just not in the social swim these days.

One good thing springs from the addiction to the late movie by a member of the family: while others sleep, the night owl can let the dog out for his 2 o'clock stroll.

Fellow we know never thinks about gossiping — he sees how upset these people are, not knowing where or what is going to become of them.

Hardest thing in the world to keep from getting soiled: a white lie.

THOMAS C. SMITH, is pictured in the visual art gallery in the Russell Thomas Fine Arts Building at Northern Michigan University, Marquette, with a menorah which was one of the pieces in his graduate exhibit of metal sculptures. The menorah is a candlestick used in Jewish worship services. (Daily Press Photos by Victor Powers)

THIS METAL SCULPTURE by Thomas C. Smith, Escanaba artist, is in his current exhibit at Northern Michigan University, Marquette. It is titled "Street Study" and was inspired by a big city scene of walk-up apartment houses seen from the rear, with their porches creating patterns of decoration.

Metal Sculptures By Smith At NMU

Thomas C. Smith, who will teach art in the Escanaba Area Junior High School in the fall, has an exhibit of his metal sculpture at the Russell Thomas Fine Arts Building on the Northern Michigan University campus, Marquette. The exhibit was opened by Northern on July 16th and will be featured through August 12.

Smith's graduate exhibit in the visual arts gallery was seen by nearly 100 persons from the Escanaba area at a reception held on Sunday afternoon on July 16th.

The young artist-educator, who will receive his master's degree in art from Northern at its summer commencement on Aug. 5, received his bachelor degree from St. John's University, Collegeville, Minn. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stack Smith, 107 Lake Shore Drive, and his studio, "Shop 7," is located at their home. His mother, Catherine, is a well-known artist who is an oil painter, ceramist, jewelry creator, glazier and liturgical robe maker.

Popular Art Form

Tom Smith and his family—his wife Kathryn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Whitburn, 809 S. 13th St.—live at 408 S. 8th St.

Tom Smith has been an artist for years, his work is to be seen in many Upper Peninsula churches, and he is now turning to art education. His interest in metal sculpture is rather new and this art form in its present popularity is also rather new, dating to the work of David Smith and others in the 1950s.

He likes the medium, he says, not because it is enjoying a vogue, but because it is such a flexible medium. "Creation," said Smith "can be big or small and it can be of great use in the home. I think it is one of the coming things in art. It's kind of different with-out being 'way out.'"

Works In Steel

The work can be in many metals, but Smith chose steel for his Marquette graduate exhibit and he has contributed 19 pieces, including six candlesticks that range widely in subject matter and in size. The artist's tool in metal sculpture he says is the oxy-acetylene welding torch, with which he can cut, heat and join materials. "It is the borrowing of a structural method for art," said Smith.

The exhibit includes trees, a Jewish menorah, liturgical candle holder, an altar tabernacle, paschal candle, processional cross, figure studies, bird forms a basket and a street scene.

Smith studied metal sculpture at Northern under Curtis Stephens of the NMU faculty.

Questions And Answers

Q—Who presides over the Senate when it sits as a court of impeachment for the trial of the President?

A—The chief justice of the United States.

Q—Among the nations of the world how does Canada rank in home territory?

A—In home territory, it is the second largest country in the world.

Q—Has the Lone Star flag of the Republic of Texas been retained as the state flag?

A—Yes. It can be flown by the sides of the Stars and Stripes, but not above it.

People, Events Of Yesteryears

From the Files of the Escanaba Daily Press

25 Years Ago

Escanaba's new police department broadcasting unit is now in operation. It provides three-way communication between the police station and the two patrol cars. Chief of Police Michael Eklund estimated that with the new radio, it is possible for a patrol car to arrive at any given spot in the populated area of Escanaba in two and one-half minutes after the message is received.

50 Years Ago

The fire department was called out twice yesterday—to the rear of the Standard Oil station where a pile of old tires were burning, and to the Chaffield Foundry where a combustion gave out much smoke. No damage was done at either place.

Members of Co. L of Escanaba planned a big field day to be held at the end of the month at the U. P. State Fairgrounds. The program will consist of baseball games, a tug-of-war contest, tennis, volleyball, broad jump, high jump, shot put, football passing, discus throwing, pole vaulting, a wrestling match, a boxing match, and running events.

Today's hand created no excitement at all when played in a rubber bridge game in Dallas. South won the spade opening and went about the business of making his two-heart contract. He would have made three if he had played West for four trumps to the ace-ten but South wasn't psychic.

South told us about the hand because West is one of those players who never makes a mistake and who seldom wins because they sit back and let their opponents steal hand after hand from them.

Somehow or other, if West had entered the bidding, his side would have played some spade contract. They might have worked their way up to it. If they had, they might have been set one trick. With West as declarer it is necessary that North open a low club so that South can take the first spade and get a club ruff. With East as declarer, it is necessary that South open a club and North duck. Either defense is possible, but not likely.

In any event four spades down one isn't worse than letting your opponents make two hearts.

Now let's look at the West hand. We don't feel that he should enter the bidding right over the one-heart opening. On the other hand we wouldn't criticize a double or a one-spade overcall. In fact we would recommend a one-spade overcall, in spite of holding only a four-card suit.

However, his first pass wasn't too bad. Later on he had two chances to get into the act. He could have doubled or bid two spades over South's two-diamond call. Once more we aren't going to take strong issue with that second pass but when the bidding came back to him at two hearts he had what we consider an automatic two-spade call.

Not only had North and South shown weakness but they were obviously short in spades and West could be sure that he would be safe if he bid two spades at that time.

Dear Friend: While I sympathize with you, as I sympathize with all people who are wretchedly unhappy, I am baffled as to why you have resigned yourself to remaining a 400-pounder forever when the tests show no organic abnormalities. The obvious conclusion is that you are

Ann Landers Fortress Of Flesh Should Be Shed!

Dear Ann Landers: Recently you printed a letter about a man who committed suicide because of the insults and the smart cracks about a physical handicap which he was supposed to accept as jokes.

It might be useful if you would print a letter from an abnormal individual who knows only too well what it is like.

Here is my story: I have been extremely overweight since I was a young boy. I have undergone every test imaginable and the results are always the same — no organic problem. I am on a constant diet which keeps me at 400 pounds. This is all I can hope for.

I am employed by a small firm because the top companies in this field will not hire me. I can't get insurance. No girl will ever marry me. My best friend apologized for being unable to have me in his wedding party because I would "ruin the looks of the ceremony." I could write a book about the clothing industry and their treatment of oversized people. The only thing I can say about American cars is that they are better than foreign cars. I have to pay $5,000 for a car I can get into and drive.

The chairs in most theaters, restaurants and sports arenas make it impossible for me to enjoy a night out. If I fly I must travel first class since tourist seats are too small. Hotels and motels have turned me away because they were afraid I would break the beds and chairs. When I visit friends I am constantly being asked to "sit down." The truth is that very few chairs are built to support a person who weighs 400 pounds.

The Armed Forces turned me down. So did the Peace Corps. Excessively obese people can't even serve their country.

So you see, Ann, it isn't only the insults and jokes and the stares of little children that drive me to the brink. It's the denial of so many things most people take for granted. The worst of it is knowing that the future holds nothing for me but more of the same. — FREAK OF THE ENTIRE STATE

Dear Friend: While I sympathize with you, as I sympathize with all people who are wretchedly unhappy, I am baffled as to why you have resigned yourself to remaining a 400-pounder forever when the tests show no organic abnormalities. The obvious conclusion is that you are obese because you are a compulsive eater. You did not ask for advice, but I would feel remiss if my duty if I did not offer it. Go to a psychiatrist and learn why you insist on maintaining this fortress of flesh around yourself. From whom are you hiding?

My problem is a fellow who is 23. He looks like John Forsythe and we are in love. Unfortunately he has had some trouble with the law (not his fault) and my folks have told me I can't date him.

His parents like me and they say I am very good for him. They say if my folks throw me out I can live with them. How can I get my folks to be reasonable? — SAD TEEN

Dear Teen: You're going to be a lot sadder if you don't quit drinking cocktails and running around with a fellow who is five years too old for you.

Don't try to be a parole officer. And, furthermore, if you are smart you will listen to YOUR parents, not his. © 1967 Publishers Newspaper Syndicate

Delta Starting On Mental Health Aid

Delta County is entering a new era of public mental health services this fall. Two members of the Community Health Center Compact told the Escanaba Rotary Club about it Tuesday noon at their luncheon at the House of Ludington.

They were Robert A. Hanson, clinical psychologist, and Mrs. Carolyn LaLonde, psychiatric social worker, who is the first full-time employee of Compact in Delta County.

Hanson is in Compact's Marquette office and he comes to Escanaba every Monday with a visiting team that includes Dr. David R. Wall, M.D., psychiatric director of Compact; and Joseph Rivard, director of adult social services. Miss Sharon Crooks, psychiatric nurse, will join the group on Mondays soon.

Mrs. Carolyn LaLonde

Jobs Open
Hanson told the Rotarians that three positions in Compact are available, one of them in Escanaba, but that the new mental health agency has not been able to recruit one psychologist for them. "We hope to get a young man for psychiatry in the not too distant future," said Hanson.

"The horizon (on mental health) is nothing but bright," said Hanson, "but we can't bring in a staff tomorrow."

Rent

The Delta County office of Compact, the 3-county mental health program in which Delta, Marquette and Alger are associated, will be moved from the Child Guidance Clinic Building, 1225 Sheridan Road, to Doctors Park near the Escanaba Area High School in October.

The rent fee will not be $5,000 or $9,000 a year as rumored. Rotarians were told, but "less than $4,000 a year."

American Electric Gets OK To Buy Michigan Utility

NEW YORK (AP) — American Electric Power Co. says it will move immediately to acquire Michigan Gas and Electric Co.

The Securities and Exchange Commission Monday approved AEP's proposal to acquire the Michigan utility, it said.

AEP said it would ask shareholders of the Michigan utility to tender their common stock at the SEC approved price of $115 a share. It said that by buying these shares and a block of shares now held by Michigan Gas Utilities Co. it could make Michigan Gas and Electric an operating subsidiary.

He told of the new concept all the people who need their help is only a stopgap," said Hanson. "We couldn't catch up with the demand for professional services. The best approach is to prevent mental illness from happening. It is a tremendous job and no one has all the answers."

"It is impossible for a mental therapist to reach a large number of patients, but by making his expertise available to the community caretakers, the physicians and clergy and others, you get closest to the individual who is disturbed and to the persons who see his emotional disturbance first. Many individuals are helped by persons without specialized training and with this in mind the federal government is making grants for staffing of mental health centers and for construction of such center."

Postal Service In Detroit Almost At A Standstill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Postal service in riot-torn Detroit dribbled almost to a standstill Tuesday with absenteeism among postal employees and little mail to handle, a Post Office spokesman said.

Three of Detroit's branch offices in the riot area have been closed for two days.

The department said that first class and air mail, normally 1.5 million pieces in Detroit, shrank Monday to about 100,000 pieces. Absenteeism both days was estimated at about 80 per cent.

The department has been diverting to Chicago some mail that would be processed in Detroit under normal conditions.

First class mail which normally goes to the Detroit central office is being processed at suburban Royal Oak and Dearborn and then shipped to branches that are operating.

Mail delivery is said to be spotty, largely because few employees are available to deliver it.

a great economy. "Mental health and emotion illness, we realize, is not a difference in time, but a difference in degree, so the individual can remain in a functioning capacity. We center on reality orientation. We can bring Delta County a much more complete mental health service than it has had."

Hanson and Mrs. LaLonde, a graduate of Escanaba High School, explained that Compact is an association of Marquette, Delta and Alger counties in a mental health program, to which the federal government has made a grant of $240,000 for 51 months of service. "We can buy a far more effective program by working together," said Hanson.

Finance Plan
The federal government's share of finance will phase down and then expire and Michigan Act 54, the state's mental health program will eventually finance 75 per cent of the work. Compact's current budget is $120,000, with $90,000 from the federal government and $30,000 from state and county funds. Delta County is furnishing $3,500.

Besides the psychiatric nurse who will be assigned here soon, said Mrs. LaLonde, a special education teacher will start work here this fall with emotionally disturbed children.

Ticket System Hearing Called

LANSING (AP) — Secretary of State James Hare has scheduled a hearing Aug. 22 at Lansing on the merits of the Illinois traffic ticket system.

Hare is chief backer of a bill seeking the system for Michigan. It twice passed the House and was twice rejected by the Senate.

Administrators of the Illinois system have been invited to explain it by Hare.

The secretary of state said he still is hopeful the Legislature will adopt a similar system for Michigan at a fall session.

"It would do a great deal to answer our failure-to-answer summons" problem in Michigan, Hare said.

Under the Illinois system, a person receiving a moving violation ticket has three options. He can surrender his license pending a court appearance, post cash bond and retain his license or post a bail card issued by an insurance company which guarantees that he will appear in court or forfeit bail.

Panel Will Probe Fairness In Texts

LANSING (AP) — A five-member committee to evaluate school textbook fairness on racial and ethnic group achievement has named Dr. J.W. Menge, dean of the Wayne State University School of Education, as committee chairman.

"Our main task is to provide a report on progress and some guidelines for both local school districts and the State Department of Education regarding textbooks," Menge said.

Other committee members are Mrs. Vintur, of the Ann Arbor school system; John Armstrong, of the Kalamazoo school system; Prof. Robert Green, of the Michigan State University College of Education, and Richard Lobenthal, state director of the B'nai B'rith.

Hart Urges Help In Buying Choice

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., wants the federal government to help consumers with buying decisions.

Hart, chief sponsor of the truth-in packaging law enacted last year, proposed today creation of an independent agency, the National Consumer Service Foundation.

The agency would represent consumers' interests before government agencies, be a clearing house for consumer complaints and put out product information.

Hart thinks space age electronics would help. "How electronics will be put to use for consumers is yet to be decided," he said in a statement. "In the past, I have suggested the feasibility of a nationwide information vending machine system with details on products available at the point of purchase."

Fed into such a machine, he said, would be factual data on competing products. Included in such product information, as Hart sees it, would be much data now locked in government files.

"The federal government does a great deal of product testing to help it make wise choices when it goes out to buy things ranging from shoes to paint," Hart said.

"Why can't this information be included in the bank of information available to the public? It was collected with taxpayers' money."

Hart said that consumers who want to make wise use of their money are frustrated. He said his bill is aimed at reducing some of that trouble.

Delta Nursing Home Must Close

35 Residents Are Affected

By DAVE ANDREWS

What do you do with 35 elderly citizens who in a little more than a month will be without a home?

That question today rests heavily on the shoulders of Delta County in the face of the imminent closing by the state fire marshal of the Delta Nursing Home in Wells Township.

Today, there isn't any answer.

Delia Peterson, superintendent of the home, said there isn't any place the patients can go, either in Delta, Marquette or Menominee counties. Some of them, she continued, have been living in the home for years and haven't even any family left.

"The patients are so upset," she said. "They are crying and every night they pray that it won't have to be closed."

The Delta County Board of Supervisors was informed last month by the State Fire Marshall that unless the Nursing Home was repaired to meet fire safety regulations a temporary permit under which Mrs. Peterson is operating will be suspended.

Estimated cost of installing the required sprinkler system, widening doors and making other alterations, however, is in the neighborhood of $30,000—money that Delta County doesn't have and if it did wouldn't want to pour into a 60-year-old building which might again need major repairs a few years later.

Realizes Problem
The Delta Nursing Home, constructed in 1907 as a poor farm and operated that way until the 1930s by a county poor commission, was upgraded to the Delta County Infirmary under the social welfare board Dec. 31, 1939. In 1947, the infirmary sign came down and it became the Delta Convalescent Home, much like it is today.

"I realize the state's problem," said Mrs. Peterson. "They have to enforce the laws. And I can see where the Board of Supervisors doesn't want to spend the money on an old building. But what about the poor old people? They're the ones that are put on the auction block."

According to Thomas McDermott, director of Delta County's Social Welfare Dept., there are no available beds in Delta County for elderly citizens. He is concerned because some of the patients at Delta Nursing Home are public patients.

"We need nursing home beds," he said. "There is no question about it. We could even use unlicensed (three-bed permit) homes. We're virtually desperate for them."

Need Bed Care
Of the 35 patients currently living at the Nursing Home, 16 of them are bed patients requiring almost constant care. Mrs. Peterson said many of the patients are over 80 years old with "quite a few" in the 90's.

"These people have had to give up their homes once already and now they have to tear up roots and lose another home," said one member of the Nursing Home staff. "I work with these people and believe me it is no fun to see them walk around with long faces full of worry and confusion nor to hear them cry and

SOME 35 PATIENTS at the Delta Nursing Home will be forced to move out when the facility is closed because it fails to meet safety standards of the state fire marshal, including many of those shown here on the porches of the facility in happier days. The state has indicated it will suspend the temporary permit under which Mrs. Delia Peterson is operating the home on Sept. 1. (Daily Press Photo) to hear them say prayers about keeping the nursing home open so they won't have to lose their home.

"Someday we are going to be senior citizens," she continued. "Would you like this to happen to you? Many of the patients here will just give up if their second home is closed down underneath them."

"I certainly hope everyone concerned will ponder over these thoughts for a while and reconsider their decision on closing down the home."

Delta Priority Low
For all practical purposes, however, Delta County's hands are tied.

Because of the existing nursing home facilities in Delta County, Delta's priority for federal assistance to construct a new building is extremely low. The County treasury doesn't have funds available to go it alone.

Frank Stupak of Gladstone, a member of the Board of Supervisors and chairman of the County Planning Commission, said that "the need has been recognized" and that methods of solving the problem are under study, but that no specific recommendations have been reached.

Stupak pointed out that if Dr. Donald Fitch and Dr. Raymond Hockstad of Escanaba proceed with plans to construct a new nursing home facility there might not be need for the county to build and maintain another home.

He also said that a plan to construct a new facility under a Building Authority to be paid for with patient revenue is also being considered.

Neither of these possible solutions will be anywhere near ready by Sept. 1.

And that, the state says, is the end of the line for the Delta Nursing Home.

Looters Held

DETROIT (AP)—Youngsters arrested for rioting or looting are not being freed "to feed the riot," says Juvenile Court Judge James H. Lincoln. They are being kept in precinct stations or the Wayne County Youth Home, now filled three times beyond rated capacity.

North Central Airlines announced at Minneapolis today that it faces possibility of a tieup on Saturday.

"We have been informed by the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers, AFL-CIO, that they will go on strike at the end of the working day, Friday, July 28, if an agreement is not reached on a new contract," the airline announced.

"Negotiations are now in progress and the cooling off period under the Railway Labor Act will terminate on July 28."

"Since North Central began operations in 1948 there has never been a work stoppage and we do not expect that there will be one now."

The airline said that the IAM broke off negotiations for a new contract recently after several months of talks and that the National Labor Mediation Board called both sides to its Washington offices to resume negotiations last Monday afternoon. The negotiations are continuing.

The airlines said that it had offered the maintenance workers wages which would be "the highest in the local airline industry and benefits as high as or exceeding those of other airlines of similar size."

The strike threat came as the airline prepared to receive its first Douglas DC-9 jet airliner at Minneapolis.

The airline, which serves Escanaba and most other major U. S. cities, has routes in Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio and starts serving Toronto on Aug. 1.

Ford Tells UAW About Its Gripes

DETROIT (AP)—Ford Motor Co. Tuesday became the first of the Big Three automakers to formally tell the United Auto Workers it had a few gripes of its own to lay on the bargaining table.

Sidney F. McKenna, chairman of the Ford bargaining team, told the union that among other things, "we will describe the continuing problems flowing from inadequacies in the special grievance procedure," and "we have some views on the cost-of-living allowance we want to discuss with you."

During the first two weeks of negotiations the companies did little more than listen as the union recited its list of demands, the top ones being a guaranteed income and some form of profit sharing.

Chrysler and General Motors are expected to follow Ford shortly in laying on the table those contract provisions which the companies want changed.

"Grievance mills," union locals which file several grievances on the same subject, are expected to be one of the industry's big complaints.

The cost-of-living allowance, which adjusts workers' salaries up or down every three months in line with the changes in the consumer price index, is another area which could cause trouble in negotiations.

Bargainers are negotiating for new contracts, covering some 700,000 workers at the Big Three. Current pacts expire Sept. 8.

"We are making no attempt to match the union proposal for proposal," McKenna said Tuesday. "We are confining ourselves to selected sections where needs for change are evident."

The companies have said that in any new contract they want recognition for the 18 cents in hourly raises that have gone to workers since 1964 under the cost-of-living formula.

Mrs. Liu Named To Library Staff

Mrs. David T. Liu of Escanaba will be employed as a professional librarian at Carnegie Public Library, it was announced today following a meeting of the Board of Library Commissioners Tuesday night.

Mrs. Liu is a graduate of Peabody College and her husband is librarian at Bay de Noc Community College. The Lius reside on Old State Road. She will start work at Carnegie Library on Sept. 1.

Burial Benefits For Viet Vets

LANSING (AP)—Service during the Vietnam conflict entitles a serviceman to burial benefits, Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley has ruled.

Kelley issued his ruling at the request of George Cook, civil counsel for Kent County.

The attorney general said a legislative act "to remedy an existing injustice" became effective June 30 to make Vietnam servicemen eligible for the benefits.

Mayor's Panel Warned Detroit Poor In Despair

WASHINGTON (AP)—Four months before violence erupted, a Detroit mayor's committee reported the city's poor—especially Negroes and young people—were seething with frustration.

And the Mayor's Committee for Community Renewal frankly concluded the city has not done enough to remove the causes the panel found for those frustrations.

In applying for a federal model city planning grant, the committee portrayed Detroit's poor—Negroes and whites—as filled "with hopelessness and frustration and despair."

"Sometimes, these feelings burst forth—in demonstrations, riots, spree of vandalism and crime," it said.

The panel said the poor "have seen and tasted the 'good life.'"

"But all too often they cannot have what they want. Because of their poverty, because of their background, because of any number of social, economic or cultural barriers, they are barely able to aspire to, let alone attain, the good life."

In Detroit, the committee said, the only playgrounds for thousands of children are the city streets "and for thousands more, not even the streets can be used."

During the theater season in Buenos Aires, June to August, footlights glow in 35 to 40 theaters.

Manistique To Vote Aug. 28 On Austerity Plan

MANISTIQUE — The Manistique Board of Education in a special meeting Tuesday night voted to ask for 5 mills for school operation for 2 years in a special election scheduled Monday, Aug. 28.

Voters turned down a 5 mills for 5 years proposal of the board in a special election held July 18 about 2 to 1.

A large delegation attended the meeting to hear a discussion of the items which would be eliminated from the schools' program if the millage does not pass.

The list of possible retrenchments provided by Supt. Edwin Wuehle included: school lunch, extra activities in athletics and non-athletics, salary increases for certified teachers (the largest item and calling for about 4 mills of the levy), school librarian, completion of school administrative office remodeling, driver education and special education classes for the handicapped, Mueller School closing, free textbooks and supplies, salary increases in auxiliary services (cooks, bus drivers, etc.) custodian replacement, filling of 2.5 vacancies in the staff, guidance, and National Defense Education Act grant matching funds.

The board told Wuehle not to implement any cutback in school services until after the millage election.

There were two items in Wuehle's list which the board did not include in its list of possible cuts. They were community use of school buildings at an estimated cost of $2,000 and capital outlay which included musical instruments for $1,500.

THIS IS WASHINGTON, but not the part that tourists see. The scene is just a few blocks from the Capitol in an area occupied by many of Washington's Negroes

Capital Slums Are Violence Incubator

By DAVE BURGIN

WASHINGTON — (NEA)—The nation's capital hangs its head, sticks out the lower lip and pouts when that dirty word crime is mentioned.

On the surface, except for news reports, the thousands of tourists (American and foreign) flocking here this summer do not see or feel the fear which grips, of all places, the seat of American government.

That's because tourists see only the show-place Northwest section of the city, the area which is home for most of the important business and 80 per cent of the government buildings and tourist attractions.

But fully three-fourths of Washington is seething. It has its share of out-right slums, the crime-breeding ghetto. It is full of areas which when mentioned, invariably invite the line, "You can't go there at night, Charley."

And all of it is a source of great embarrassment to Washingtonians—Negro and white, official and unofficial.

"It's horrible and deplorable," said Rep. Donald "Buzz" Lukens R-Ohio. "Such a beautiful city and such a crummy place to visit." And then he adds, unwittingly underscoring the city's frustrated outlook toward the crime and racial tension, "Something has to be done."

"You name it and we'll try it," says the undermanned Police Department. "Congress rules the city and Congress doesn't care," says the citizenry.

Congress, in turn, makes all the obvious counter charges but its frustration with the District of Columbia's ills, notably rocketing crime figures is seen in the fact that it appears increasingly ready to get out from under the ugly responsibility. It may someday grant D. C. home rule.

"If this ever comes," says Rick Fraley, a student at Howard University and civil rights activist, "crime here should drop sharply. Tensions that caused Newark to blow would disappear."

The District (which people who live in the metropolitan area refer to as Washington) Negro population is now at about 75 per cent of the total. Negroes account for 92 per cent of the District public school enrollment.

Moderate civil rights leaders believe that if the Negro gets his proportionate responsibility in city affairs, he will react strongly to it. As a matter of pride, they say, it will touch the ghetto, giving heavy crime areas a sense of responsibility never known before anywhere in Washington, or even anywhere in the United States.

"Negroes here are well aware our brethren are responsible for most of the crime," Fraley said. "But you have to remember we're most of the population. It's not exactly accurate when whites read about another hold-up and then say, 'Well, another nigger did it.'"

Fraley and his Howard University colleagues are hard at work this summer in the ghettos promoting "Negro pride and a sense of responsibility."

"Pride in all matters," Fraley added. "Pride in the race, heritage, this country, this city, the community . . ."

"Negroes here know they have an overwhelming population advantage. If we ever rose up here we could practically wreck the city in one night—make Newark look like a picnic—not to mention the worldwide embarrassment it would cause the government."

"But I don't think we'll ever have any big rioting here. In the obvious counter charges but its frustration with the District of Columbia's ills, notably rocketing crime figures is seen in the fact that it appears increasingly ready to get out from under the ugly responsibility. It may someday grant D. C. home rule."

Though official confirmation could not be obtained, the White House reportedly is keenly aware of ramifications of a Newark-Watts type riot, and thus has put men and women in the field to check pulses. And indeed riot control precautions have been taken.

"I said I don't think Washington will erupt," Fraley continued. "Perhaps I mean I hope it won't, because I've been to other U. S. ghettos and all the signs are here."

"The Negro in Washington is just as fed up as the Negro in Harlem. He may be better off in some social respects, but he's no less indignant. As good an indicator of unrest as any is rising crime. Crime is up here, up big. This means disrespect for the law is up, hatred for white power is up . . ."

"I think President Johnson and some members of Congress have clearly seen all these same signs. The Negro here senses it and this, coupled with our overwhelming numbers, has kept things pretty cool."

"But it wouldn't take much for the District to blow, higher even than Harlem or Watts."

"Responsible white civil rights leaders here have learned to play on the Negro sense of responsibility, our strong desire to have it. If we ever got home rule, Washington would be one big chocolate grin. We're under pressure, too, you know."

As Lukens, Fraley and the entire city are saying, "Something's got to be done." But if not, as Carmichael's warning suggests, the serene and lily-white show places of the nation's capital could be scarred and, worse yet, bloodstained.

Rock High School Class Holds Reunion

The Rock High School graduating class of 1952 held its 15th anniversary reunion at the Rock Lion Clubhouse Saturday, July 22.

Mrs. Clifford Carlson prepared the dinner and Donald Syrjanen was Master of Ceremonies. Dancing and open house followed at 9 p. m.

Of the 19 graduates, eleven were in attendance: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peterson (Marlene LaLande), and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Syrjanen, Menominee Falls, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Kaminen, Fond du Lac, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lehto, Rock; Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Angrick (Norma Seppanen), Oconomowoc, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Harris (June Connors), Flint, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Dave Macey (Virginia Moen), Sedalia, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Jokela (Nancy Koski), Mr. and Mrs. Louis Waeghe (Betty Sinnaeve), St. Nicholas, Mich. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson (Pat Seppala) Clarkston, Mich., both graduates of 1952.

Nahma

Fawn in School

When the custodian of the Nahma school entered the building Monday morning he was surprised to find a young fawn in the corridor on the main floor of the building.

On investigating, he found that the fawn had broken a window in the basement, but suffered only a small cut on its ear. It is believed that the fawn was chased by dogs and in its haste to get away crashed through the window and landed in the basement. The fawn was fed milk and then taken to a nearby farm and released in the woods.

SCHOOL CHILDREN

A larger proportion of children go to school in Utah than in most U. S. states. Recent figures show that at least 58 per cent of the population over age 25 has completed high school. The national average for the same age is 20 per cent.

Susan Wagner Bride Of Harold C. Olson

St. Joseph's Church in Escanaba was the setting Saturday, July 15 for the double ring ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Susan Wagner and Harold C. Olson of Escanaba.

The nuptials were solemnized at 11 a. m. by Rev. Mederick, a close friend of the bridegroom.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick G. Wagner, 1109 2nd Ave. S. and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Ty Olson, 1604 18th Ave. S.

Honor attendants for the couple were Mrs. Nilo (Janice) Makosky of Escanaba, a close friend of the bride and Michael Wagner, brother of the bride. Seating the guests was Richard Puglisi.

A small reception honoring the couple was held in the afternoon at the home of the bridegroom's parents for members of the immediate family and close friends.

The newlyweds will make their home at 1021 1st Ave. S., Escanaba.

The bride is a 1959 graduate of Holy Name High School and has been employed as a divisional secretary at Investors Diversified Services Inc. of Escanaba.

Pretty Feet Need Care

NEW YORK (NEA)—Fashion today calls for greater exposure of the feet and styles emphasize sandals and see-through shoes. However, most women have a decided feeling of insecurity about showing their feet and rightly so if they are neglected.

According to studies the average woman walks about 65,000 miles in her lifetime. Therefore, feet should be given prime care time. Ingrown toenails, corns and other malady that beset neglected feet will not be your problem if you establish a regular beauty routine.

You can start in your nightly bath by scrubbing your feet with a hand brush, dry thoroughly between the toes with a Turkish towel and dust with foot powder. Then massage them with a foot lotion to keep them smooth. Clip toenails straight across but not too short. Where you have calluses, rub with a pumice stone but never cut them. Leave minor surgery to the podiatrist.

In planning your vacation one of the most important items to consider (along with your passport and travelers' checks) is the footwear you pack. If you've got walking tours on the agenda, pack shoes with a good arch support and for beach activities sandals or sneakers will fill the bill.

If your travel plan includes sightseeing or rugged hunting or camping, you should then strengthen and limber up your feet and legs before you leave home.

Here are some simple daily exercises for that purpose:

● Walk on tiptoes on your bare feet. Alternate this by walking on the inner and outer edge of your feet, keeping soles off the floor as much as possible.

● Wiggle your toes back and forth vigorously. After your bath, stand on the far end of a bath towel and draw in the rest of it little by little with your toes.

To be provocative in the privacy of their palaces, Egyptian women enticed their pharaohs by wearing jeweled toe rings and tinkling bangles attached to their ankles. To entice your pharaoh you'll need more than baubles, bangles and beads.

Riot Danger Touches Lives Of Area People

The riots in Detroit and other downstate cities have affected the lives of a large number of people from this area, including persons employed in the cities and others who were ordered there for law enforcement.

"We just had to get out of there. When you've got three children and live so close to the rioting, all you think of is getting out of there," said Mrs. John Young from the safety of the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bougie, 1307 Sheridan Road, Escanaba.

Mr. and Mrs. Young, with their three children, Karen, 9, Michael, 7, and Robert, 5, left their home in Detroit Monday evening and came to Escanaba and stayed.

Tuesday morning, Young and a friend who had driven the family here, returned to Detroit where the former is employed by the Western Electric Co.

Took Back Roads

Mrs. Young said: "The rioting broke out on Sunday afternoon. Sunday night, of course, it was much worse. On Monday afternoon my mother called me and asked me to come to Escanaba to be sure nothing happened to any of us. We left within an hour."

"Rumors were spreading around our neighborhood that on Monday night the rioters would start down Michigan Ave., toward our neighborhood. The National Guardsmen were closing up everything on Michigan Ave., so we had to take the back roads out of the city. We couldn't even take an airplane out. The airport was temporarily closed because snipers were shooting at the planes when they got into the air."

"I wouldn't call it rioting. It's just something that these people have to get out of their systems. The whites and blacks were in it together, running and looting... to me it would only be rioting if the Negroes and whites were fighting against each other, but this is different, they are all in it together."

Heat Builds Tension

"A weatherman said that the terrific heat and the humidity have a lot to do with the situation, and I agree with him. In the last three or four days before the riots started, the temperature was in the upper 80's and lower 90's. The heat and humidity causes the body temperature to build up and finally the people just can't take any more of it and they just explode."

"In the riot area, the heat just never lets up. In fact, in the area, the heat is probably worse than in any other part of the city. The only way to

Early Trading Is Irregular

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market continued irregular early Wednesday. Trading was active.

The market went through the same pattern as on Tuesday, with the average down but more gainers than losers.

Gains of about a point were made by McDonnell Douglas, Stokely Van Camp, International Telephone, Polaroid, U.S. Smelting, Xerox and Merck.

Eastern Air Lines lost more than a point. U.S. Steel dropped 1 1/2 to 47 on 7,000 shares. The company reported after the market close Tuesday that second quarter earnings fell 44 percent from a year earlier.

The second biggest steelmaker, Bethlehem, reports on earnings Wednesday. It took a fractional loss.

Guards, Snipers Fight In Detroit

restaurants and a theater where shows make pre-Broadway.

Guest Slain

Bullets cracked in streets lined by the broad plate glass windows of expensive shops that include Saks Fifth Avenue of New York.

Gunfire killed a woman guest at the Harlan House Motel, three blocks from the Fisher Building and the General Motors Building, headquarters of the world's largest manufacturing company.

She was Bern M. Hall, a guest from Oakdale, Conn. She was white.

Three Negro youths were found dead of gunshot wounds at the Aggers Motel, 10 blocks north of the same area.

"It was blam! blam! blam!" reported Associated Press newsman Whitey Sawyer from the floor of a telephone booth near the Harlan House shooting.

"We've got a helluva battle going here," said an AP newsman in another West Side section.

Tanks In Street

The furious West Side fighting engaged only police and National Guardsmen against snipers.

Guard tanks, cannons poking from their slowly revolving turrets, rumbled through the streets. Soldiers, rifles pointed at rooftops, crouched in trucks and armored personnel carriers.

Men of the 101st and 82nd Airborne divisions, ordered into the city Monday night by President Johnson, stood guard over the East Side, about six miles from the heaviest gunfire.

It was ghostly quiet there and over the rest of the city where bars, taverns, movie houses and all places of entertainment have been closed and a curfew has been in force since Sunday.

Tour Riot Area

Cyrus Vance, a special assistant in the Defense Department and Johnson's deputy at the scene, toured the embattled area with Lt. Gen. John Throckmorton, commander of the paratroopers, Gen. George Romney and Mayor Jerome Cavanagh.

"With respect to the East Side, things were much quieter tonight," said Vance. "The incident rates are lower tonight than last night and they were lower last night than the night before."

Throckmorton said there were no plans to move paratroopers to the West Side. Some 1,800 are in the city, another 3,000 camped in pop tents at an air base 20 miles away.

"Progress is being made but we're not out of the woods," said Vance.

Romney who with Cavanagh had sought the federal troops, was asked why they were not being used on the West Side.

Congressman Critical

"They're making the decisions and they haven't considered me," he said, referring to Vance and Throckmorton.

The governor also was asked about charges leveled earlier by Rep. Charles Diggs, D-Mich., that police played a part in the decision on the timing of troops going into the troubled area.

Romney had pressed for use of the troops, but had refused to declare a state of insurrection, a decision that would have nullified millions in insurance claims.

Diggs told The Associated Press Tuesday that he had phoned the White House as terror mounted Monday night and told the President that if the troops were not sent into the city soon he would go on television.

MELVIN JACOBSEN, Escanaba commercial fisherman is pictured removing herring from a gill net. The fish poke their head into the mesh of this type of net and when it tightens they try to retract it and get caught by their gills killing them. ## Gill Net Must Go In Lakes Fishery

By JEAN WORTH

The Michigan Conservation Department's effort to reestablish the Great Lakes fishery is going to require the abolishment of gill nets.

Commercial fishermen have used them since fishing began in the lakes more than a century ago. The change will be a historic one and a revolution in commercial fishing, which will thereafter be dependent upon trap nets and pound nets, the kind that impound fish alive, so that they can be liberated if not legal size or species when the net is lifted.

Dr. Howard Tanner, director of natural resources in the College of Agriculture, Michigan State University, the former head of the Fish Division of the Michigan Conservation Department, visited the U.P. College of Agriculture and Natural Resource leaders last week and said:

"There has been tremendous pressure on commercial fishermen upon the revival of the fishery, and because they're unfamiliar with it and they don't have much investment in the fishing business."

But Dr. Tanner says the Black River boats are taking lots of lake trout, lot of lake salmon, and an occasional steelhead, close running rainbow trout. This is what we are working for all along the lake shore.

Fishing For Sport

"The ski industry doesn't really make its living off the lake. It is the supporting service — the bars and food service."

Take Baby Trout

"This year, in addition to the whitfish, the nets have taken small lake trout. These are undersized fish and illegal, but the gillnet doesn't distinguish between species. The Conservation Department says that for every 1,000 pounds of whitfish some fishermen's nets took 400 pounds of undersized trout. All these trout were hatchery fish being used to rehabilitate trout fishing in Lake Michigan. The fishing has decimated the lake trout along this shore."

(The illegal trout were turned over by fishermen to the Conservation Department.)

"If someone were to ask hypothetically 'When is charter boat sports fishing going to begin in these waters?' we'd have to say 'I couldn't tell you, but it's been delayed a couple years because the trout are being caught out of the lake three or four years before maturity.'"

"Commercial fishing using impounding gear — trap nets and pound nets in which fish can be distinguished and returned to the waters unharmed — can be around for a long time. As commercial fishing gives ground and compromises (under pressures to establish a Great Lakes sport fishery) we have got to realize that the gillnet has got to have very short life. It is going out. The only question is when."

Superior Boats

Dr. Tanner said that charter boat service is making a promising beginning at Black River Harbor on Lake Superior in the western U.P. Charter boats have been suggested to commercial fishermen as one hedge they might use to stay in commercial fishing by serving the sports fishermen with boats for charter, guide service, fishing cleaning and shipping services, etc.

Commercial fishermen haven't become much interested in this change yet because it, like re-vice places and markets that get the big part of ski business income. Charter boat service for fishing is the same. More money is spent on the boat than is spent on the fish, but the big opportunity is in the supporting facilities.

"At Westport, Wash., the support of the fishery — commercial and sport — is a big business. Four hundred and fifty boats go out 25 miles on the rough Pacific with their sea-sick pills every morning. Most of them are charter boats with 6 to 12 fishermen who pay $15 each. They leave the wife and kids on shore, so there must be amusement places for them, because they've got to have fun, too."

For excitement "The fish places are fish, and they can fish, they ship it for fresh delivery anywhere in the United States. There are photographers to record the catch. There are bait and tackle shops. There is entertainment in the evening."

Most of the persons who go there to fish travel long distances and now they have it arranged so that one phone call you hang up you know what motel you're going to stay at, the name of the captain of your boat and the time he's leaving, how many days you'll be fishing and all the rest of it."

"People will go 25 miles in rough water if the excitement is there, when they won't do it for yellow perch or bluegills — the bars and food service."

Adult-Youth Cooperation Is Important Need

The second phase of the Senior Citizens program has been started, with mailing of 1500 letters to persons over 55 in Schoolcraft County. A home-maker service is being provided. Cooperation and understanding is necessary in an adult-youth program, Dick Marsh, director has reported. The first phase, establishing a drop-in center has been accomplished.

Marsh and Rudy Lawrence, principal of Germfask school spoke at the meeting of the Community School advisory board. Lawrence told of regeneration of a community school concept, started some years ago, following a recent tragedy. The program has been expanded to include teenagers and adults, he said.

He traced history of the community of 250 with 47 active clubs to combined use of school and community resources, use of Vista workers and five Neighborhood Youth Corps personnel.

Ken Berry Polishes Apple, White Sox Sweep Indians

By The Associated Press

Ken Berry took the apple twice. The third time he polished it — real good.

"I took the apple the other two times," said Berry in explaining his failure to deliver in two game-winning situations in the second game of the Chicago White Sox doubleheader with Cleveland Tuesday night.

"So I had to do something about it," Berry continued.

He did — smacking a two-run homer in the bottom of the 16th inning to give the White Sox a 6-5 victory. A two-run homer — this time by J.C. Martin in the ninth inning — gave the Sox a 3-1 victory in the opener.

The twin victories moved the American League leading Sox two full games ahead of runner-up Boston, which lost 6-4 to third-place California. The loss snapped a 10-game Boston winning streak.

In other AL action, Kansas City swept Washington 5-1 and 6-3 and the Minnesota-New York game was rained out after nine innings with the score tied 1-1. The Detroit-Baltimore game was washed out.

Newman Boosts Angels' Hopes

BOSTON (AP) — Fred Newman's spectacular pitching comeback provided a big tonic to the pennant hopes of the California Angels today — and Manager Bill Rigney thought it might even serve as a hair tonic, too.

"It would make the manager's hair turn brown again," the white-haired Rigney quipped when asked what a return to Newman's old form would mean to his club's flag chances.

The big right-hander, who was ineffective all last season and underwent major surgery on his shoulder in October, made his first American League appearance of 1967 Tuesday night. He held the Boston Red Sox scoreless for the last four innings and earned credit for a 6-4 California victory.

Seven Is Now

It was the seventh in a row for the streaking Angels, boosting them to within a half-game of the second-place Red Sox, who had a 10-game winning streak shattered by the loss.

Newman, who won a total of 27 games for week-hitting Angel

Stanky, who had argued that there should be a curfew, after the Sox lost to Washington in 22 innings earlier in the season, said:

"Even though we won, it's no good for tomorrow. The players will be dragging. There should be a curfew. His (Cleveland Manager Joe Adcock) staff is wrecked and my staffed his wrecked. There will be 20,000 people out tomorrow night and they won't be able to see a good ball game. After all, how many stayed to see this game?"

The paid attendance was 18,152, and it was estimated that less than 1,000 fans were in the stands at the end.

California struck for three runs with two out in the first inning. Don Mincher doubled home Jerry Adair and scored on Jimmie Hall's double. Hall came home on Bob Rodgers' single.

The Angels clinched it with a pair in the third. Mincher singled and Hall doubled, and they scored on Rick Reichardt's single. Hall also singled home a run in the fourth.

Defense Shines
Boston scored single runs in four different innings, but the Angel defense came up with several sparkling plays to keep the Red Sox from having a big inning.

Doctors decided Newman had tendon trouble, and in October a piece of tendon was cut out of the shoulder. It was a radical move — the first time it has even been done as far as Newman knows — but he said Tuesday night he never considered not having the operation.

Newman, born and raised in the Boston area and originally signed by the Red Sox before being lost in the expansion draft, was asked if it gave him any special feeling to beat Boston.

"Not as a rule," he said, "but tonight it did, because I didn't know if I'd ever pitch in the majors again."

Mike Herahberger's three-run inside-the-park homer in the first inning sparked Kansas City to its first-game victory.

In the nightcap, Ken Harrelson, who homered in the first game, gave the Athletics a 5-2 lead with a two-run single in the fifth, and Joe Nieseck drove in what proved to be the winning run with a single in the sixth.

Frank Howard drove in a pair of runs for Washington in the second game with his 25th homer.

Harmon Killebrew hit his 29th homer in the Minnesota first inning and Jim Kaat made the run stand up until Mickey Mantle homered with two out in the ninth.

After Kaat retired Bill Robinson to end the inning, the rain started and about a half hour later the game was called. It will be replayed as part of a two-night doubleheader Aug. 18. Individual statistics will go into the record book.

Pratt Under Par In Highland Loop

Con Pratt led the golfers at the Highland Tuesday night as he fired a pair of one-under-par 35's in the Twilight League race.

Following Pratt with low scores were Larry Johnston 36-38, Dave Friets 37-38, Dick Manske and Abe Milkovich 38, Jim Schultz 38-40, Jack Keane and Mel Manske 39, and Jack Smith, Dick Nelson and Ed McCarthy 40.

Smitty's Smackers retained their league lead with a 3 point bulge, over the Watuis and the Divot Diggers who are tied for second.

Standings: Smitty's Smackers 62½, Wertz's Watuis and Divot Diggers 59½, W.R.'s 58, Doug's Dubbers 54½, Has Beens 53, Con's Clubbers 52½, Barney's Beavers 49, Long Knockers 48½, Hackers 48, Rum Dums and Hi Flyers 44½, Got Yas 43, and Super Valu 42.

Yankee Women's Open To Start

FLINT (AP) — The $25,000 Yankee Women's Open Golf Tournament starts Friday over the nine-hole Willowood Country Club course.

A two-day pro-am event started today. Twenty-four pairs of golfers tee off Friday in the 54-hole best competition.

Entries include top women pros Mickey Wright, Kathy Whitworth, Carol Mann and Patty Berg.

The team of Gloria Ehret and Judy Kimball will defend the 1966 championship won with a 17-under par 190.

STOCK CAR RACING, although safer than it looks, has its more hectic moments, as this sequence shows. Johnny Roberts of Breckenridge, Mich., escaped this crash at Daytona Beach, Fla., without serious injury.

Namath's Knee Injured Again

By The Associated Press

Joe Namath is having knee trouble again. This time it's his left instead of the right for which he underwent surgery last December.

The $400,000 star quarterback for the New York Jets of the American Football League strained a tendon below his left kneecap in the Jets' training camp at Peekskill, N.Y., Tuesday.

Dr. James Nicholas, the Jets' physician, taped up the knee and the former Alabama All-America resumed practice.

In 1966, his second as a pro QB, the 208-pound Namath turned in the league's best performance by completing 222 of 471 passes for 3,379 yards, including 19 TD heaves. He had been confident of having his best year ever in 1967. Now, for a few days at least, his future appears uncertain.

The Boston Patriots rookies were upset 3-0 by the Lowell Giants of the Atlantic Coast Conference in an exhibition at Lowell, Mass.

Tom Dempsey's 18-yard field goal with 2:26 to play accounted for the only score and the fired-up farm hands of the NFL champion Green Bay Packers won on a tackle by Sam Wilson on the last play of the game. Wilson caught Billy Laird from behind on the Lowell four-yard line as the gun sounded.

Leslie Duncan and Kenny Graham, two of the three San Diego Charger players, fined $1,000 each by Coach Sid Gillman for leaving camp Monday, returned to the base at Escondido, Calif. Tuesday and were reinstated.

It cost Duncan and Graham each $1,200, the $1,000 fine plus $100 for each day of practice missed. Fullback Gene Foster, who left with defensive backs Duncan and Graham, did not return and remains suspended indefinitely.

In other developments, veteran back Jim Todd was traded to the Baltimore Colts by the Detroit Lions, and John Paluck

Cards' Relay Cools Off Cubs

By The Associated Press

The St. Louis Cardinals, once again perched atop the National League, are also bidding fair to lead the league in nonchalance.

The Cards opened a critical three-game series with the remarkable Chicago Cubs Monday night with St. Louis a game ahead. The Cubs then won the opener to tie for the league lead.

Tuesday night a brilliant relay play from center field to the plate transformed Ted Savage from the potential Chicago tying run to the final out in a 4-3 St. Louis victory.

And how did the Cardinals react? Calmly, to say the least. "Maxie (shortstop Dal Maxvill) told me to throw so I threw," said Julian Javier, who relayed the ball in from second, with an authentic shrug. "I wasn't surprised." "I didn't think it was such a great play," yawned catcher Tim McCarver, who made the tag at the plate after Ernie Banks had already scored on the play. "I mean the ball was right there so what's the big deal?"

Tolan Worried
Only Bob Tolan, who at 21 is in his first full year with the Cards and who started the play after retrieving Al Spangler's single in center field, showed anything approaching emotion. "After I made the throw,"

Rich Allen carried Philadelphia's big stick, pounding out four hits—including his 15th homer—driving in four runs, scoring three and stealing two bases. Jim Bunning got his 10th victory.

Jesus Alou's bases-loaded single in the bottom of the ninth won the game for San Francisco after the Mets had tied the game in the top of the inning on John Sullivan's two-run single and Larry Stahl's bouncer to the mound, which scored a run.

Pat Jarvis hurled a two-hitter, leading Atlanta past Cincinnati into third place. The Braves scored in the fifth when Denis Menke tripled and came in on Woody Woodward's single.

Bob Bailey drove in a pair of runs with a single and a sacrifice fly and Bill Singer allowed Pittsburgh seven hits in the Dodgers' triumph.

said Tolan. "I looked up and saw him trying to score and I said to myself, 'Oh, God, I hope he makes a good throw to the plate.'"

In other less nerve-wracking National League action Tuesday night, Philadelphia pounded Houston 12-7, San Francisco edged New York 5-4, Atlanta nudged Cincinnati 1-0 and Los Angeles beat Pittsburgh 3-1.

Gordy Farragh, 32, head basketball coach at Kingsford High School for the past six years, has submitted his resignation to accept the head basketball coaching job at Ishpeming. He will also serve as assistant varsity football coach. Farragh replaces Duane Phillips at Ishpeming, who resigned to take a college coaching position in South Dakota. In six years at Kingsford, Farragh's teams won 101 games while losing 94.

Sports In Brief

Pete Rose of the Cincinnati Reds hit safely in 25 straight games this spring.

The University of Denver will play 29 hockey games next season.

ROD CAREW (29) of the Minnesota Twins appears to have successfully stolen third base in second inning of Monday night's exhibition game with the Chicago White Sox at Milwaukee County Stadium, but Sox third baseman Dick Kenworthy tagged Carew out. Twins won game 2-1. Part of the record crowd of 51,144 which overflowed onto outfield warning track is visible behind players. (AP Wirephoto)

January Heads Minnesota Field

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — National PGA champ Don January will head a host of pro golfers taking part in today's pro-amateur prelude to Thursday's tee-off for the $100,000 Minnesota Golf Classic at Hazletline golf course.

Other big name pros after the $20,000 first-place money include last year's winner Bobby Nichols, Don Cherry, Gene Littler, Julius Boros, Doug Sanders, Ken Venturi and Don Masengale.

January edged Masengale 69 to 71 in winning the PGA crown Monday at Denver's 7,400-yard Columbine course.

The new PGA champ said, "I'm putting as well as I ever have in my life. You don't win any tournament without a good putting game. That was true at the PGA and it will be true at Hazletline."

It will be the classic's first time at the long Hazletline course. The tourney began as the St. Paul Open in 1930 and was played at the short, trouble-free Keller course until this year.

January, who won the 1961 classic, should be in good form for Hazletline's opening range of 7,200 yards. The longest holes on the par-72 course will be No. 11 at 603, and No. 3 at 600.

"I know it will be a fine course," January said, "and I'll guarantee you one thing — that 7,200 yards will play a good deal longer than the 7,400 yards we had in that thin air at Columbine last week."

Hazletline will be the site of the 1970 National Open and has been tested only once previously by the pros. That was for the women's National Open last summer.

A total of 208 golfers, 32 of them pros, tee off today's $2,500 pro-am event. Each pro is paired with three amateurs.

January tees off with his trio from the 10th tee at 12:32 p.m. CDT.

The 72-hole pro contest runs from Thursday through Sunday.

Swimmers Primed

Uncle Sam's youthful and powerful swimming array was primed for a likely record-smashing surge towards one of the women's 3-meter diving.

For the United States, entering the day with two gold medals and one silver medal, it was mainly a question which countries would take the bronze medal for third place in tonight's three aquatic finals.

The United States had Pan-Am record-breaking qualifiers Tuesday for tonight's 100-meter women's free style in Zach Zorn, Buena Park, Calif., and the 200-meter women's free style in 16-year-old Pam Kruse, Pocono Beach, Pa.

Olympian Sue Gossick, 19, Tarzana, Calif., and Micki King, Ann Arbor, Mich., moved into the women's 3-meter diving finals as one-two leaders after Tuesday's preliminaries.

Cinches to dominate this afternoon's trials for evening finals were NCAA and AAU champ Ken Mertens, Southern Methodist grad, in the men's 200-meter breaststroke; 15-year-old Katie Ball, Jacksonville, Fla., in the women's 200 breaststroke; and Cathy Ferguson, 18, Burbank, Calif., in the women's 200 backstroke.

Lions Trade Todd To Colts

DETROIT (AP)—Jim Todd, a Detroit Lion veteran, was traded to the Baltimore Colts Tuesday for a draft choice next winter.

The 195-pound running back was placed on waivers, but withdrawn when three other National Football League clubs claimed him.

Todd came to the Lions from the Philadelphia Eagles. He returned three kickoffs for a total of 165 yards and returned five punts for five yards last season.

Cagers Cruise

The U.S. basketball team was hoisted by a pair of talented collegians, Jo Jo White of Kansas and Westley Unsell of Louisville, to a 131-43 crushing of feeble Colombia.

Thus began the Americans' fifth straight title quest.

White's 22 points and 18 by big Unsell led double-figure scoring by six U.S. players.

The United States also had

Pan-American Games Tempo To Increase

WINNIPEG, Canada (AP) — The tempo picks up in the fifth Pan-American Games Wednesday with a strong Stars and Stripes beat.

A bag of six more gold medals for the United States looms in the first session of swimming finals as the third day of overall Pan-Am action brings yachting and fencing into the sprawling hemispheric athletic show.

With 16 sports now under way, only boxing, rowing, judo and the real big tent event—track and field—remain in the wings at venues scattered all over this city of 500,000.

The track competition, which like swimming has the U.S. squad stamped an overwhelming favorite, starts Saturday.

Uncle Sam's youthful and powerful swimming array was primed for a likely record-smashing surge towards one of the women's 3-meter diving.

For the United States, entering the day with two gold medals and one silver medal, it was mainly a question which countries would take the bronze medal for third place in tonight's three aquatic finals.

The United States had Pan-Am record-breaking qualifiers Tuesday for tonight's 100-meter women's free style in Zach Zorn, Buena Park, Calif., and the 200-meter women's free style in 16-year-old Pam Kruse, Pocono Beach, Pa.

Olympian Sue Gossick, 19, Tarzana, Calif., and Micki King, Ann Arbor, Mich., moved into the women's 3-meter diving finals as one-two leaders after Tuesday's preliminaries.

Cinches to dominate this afternoon's trials for evening finals were NCAA and AAU champ Ken Mertens, Southern Methodist grad, in the men's 200-meter breaststroke; 15-year-old Katie Ball, Jacksonville, Fla., in the women's 200 breaststroke; and Cathy Ferguson, 18, Burbank, Calif., in the women's 200 backstroke.

Kaline Ready To Play Again

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Detroit Tigers may have set one of those oddball type records. But they needed a riot and a 500-mile trip to do it.

When Tuesday night's game was rained out in Baltimore, it may have been the only contest ever scheduled for the same night to be called off in two different cities.

The game, originally set for Detroit, was transferred to Baltimore because of civil disturbances in the Motor City.

So the Tigers travelled 500 miles to Baltimore and played an inning and a half before the rains washed out the scoreless tie.

The teams cannot play tonight because of a soccer game at Memorial Stadium but a single game is set for Thursday night and a makeup game will be set for Detroit's final trip of the season to Baltimore next week.

That will make a total of eight doubleheaders for the Tigers during August.

Tiger Manager Mayo Smith said Joe Spatula, who pitched one inning Tuesday night, will be his probable starter Thursday. Baltimore Manager Hank Bauer was uncertain who his pitcher would be.

Also starting for Detroit should be Al Kaline, who has been on the disabled list since June 27.

The tiger outfielder took batting practice before Tuesday's game and said he felt no pain in his injured hand and that he expects to play Thursday.
